

DRAFT SCHEDULE

19th Annual Information Security Conference & Exhibit

Promoting Global Cyber Security

The Importance of Building Confidence and Trust in the Internet, the Web, IT, and Management Systems for Economic and Social Development

WHEN AND WHERE:

Monday, June 4, 2007

Tutorials: 9.00AM - 5.30PM

Exhibits Open 8.00AM – 5.30PM

Conference Room 1, United Nations Headquarters, New York City

8.00 – 9.00 am	Registration in the public lobby, Visitors' Entrance, 46th and First Ave.; tabletop displays open from 8.00 5.00 PM. Coffee is available in the nearby Café Austria
9.00 – 9.30	Welcome Comments: Mr. Ban Ki-moon , Secretary General of the United Nations, (video message), The Importance of ICT to Development Ambassador Dalius Cekuolis , President of the Economic and Social Council; and, Permanent Representative of Lithuania to the United Nations Jose Ocampo , Under Secretary General, DESA (to be confirmed) Sarbuland Khan , Executive Coordinator of the Secretariat of the Global Alliance for ICT and Development Mike Lackey , President, AIT Global
9.30 – 10.00	Sarbuland Khan , Executive Coordinator, UN-GAID: Topic – This presentation will provide an update on the UN GAID initiatives and World Information Society Day
10.00 – 10.30	Richard C. Beard , Senior Deputy U.S. Coordinator for International Communications & Information Policy, US Department of State: Topic – A Global Culture for Cyber Security: A Proposal for Action!
10.30- 11.00	Nancy Pearson , VP, IBM Governance and Risk Management Marketing: Topic – How Governance and Risk Management Enables Greater Innovation and Business Value from Information Technologies. As IT has become more and more critical to business goals, technological solutions have become more sophisticated. Achieving and maintaining strong IT governance is one of today's most critical problems. Nancy will cover challenges businesses face addressing governance and risk management. We'll review common business approaches used to address these issues, that will help you enable greater business innovation and value through your IT resources.
11.00 – 11.30	Ambassador Anwarul Chowdhury , Under Secretary General and High Representative for Least Developed Countries: To be confirmed
11.30 – 11.55	Coffee Break , network, visit exhibits
11.55- 12.20 pm	Stephen Buerle , Global Director - Enterprise Security, Unisys Corporation: Topic: Security Convergence - New Frontiers in Physical and IT Asset Protection. This presentation will include an overview of trace and trace technologies, wireless protocols and sensor networking techniques and how they can be used as to authenticate, locate, monitor, communicate with and track physical assets, individuals and staff members.
12.20- 12.50	Expert Panel, led by Bryant G. Tow , Member, Board of Directors, InfraGard National Members Alliance; Member, Executive Committee of the IT-Sector Coordinating Council for DHS: Topic – Utilizing a Risk Management Approach to Provide Visibility into the Enablement of Business and Innovation. With today's threat matrix, Security can be a constant game of cat and mouse where business is constantly reacting to the current state of threats. Our panel will discuss business models where a proactive approach to security provides new business opportunities. Panel Members: Susan Blocher , Director, Marketing, Governance and Risk Management, IBM Tivoli Judy Arteché-Carr , Executive Board Member, Society for Information Management (SIM) International Stephen Buerle , Global Director - Enterprise Security Rich Lieberman , Chairman, Member Meeting Services, ASIS, NY Chapter
12.50-2.30	Lunch (Note: Non-UN attendees are advised to keep their UN Security Badge to re-enter the UN building and to return by 2.30 pm in Conference Room 1 to secure a seat.)

2.30-2.40	Welcome Back Comments: Ambassador Munir Akram, President, Group of 77, Permanent Representative of Pakistan to the United Nations Mike Lackey, President, AIT Global
2.40-3.10	Karen Evans , Administrator for Electronic Government & Information Technology, OMB, Executive Office of the President, Washington, DC: Topic – Strategic Governance of Electronic Government and Information Technology Programs. Attendees program will learn about U.S. Federal Government strategies to manage E-government and information technology programs through policy and management systems. Administrator Evans will discuss the success and challenges of effectively managing $65 billion dollars in annual Federal information technology spending.
3.10-3.40	Norm Barber , Strategic Security Advisor, Microsoft Corporation: Topic – Managing and Protecting Personal Information: A Data Governance Case Study. Information Protection is now the greatest Security concern for executives in both the public and private sectors. As data breaches continue, laws and regulations become stricter. Corporations, financial institutions and government agencies need a governance model to manage information protection in a way that is both effective and efficient. This session will present a technology-oriented governance model that can be used on a global basis to address a wide range of regulations.
3.40– 4.10	A.T. Smith , Deputy Assistant Director, US Secret Service, DHS: Topic – This talk will overview US Secret Service/Electronic Crimes Task Force (ECTF) initiatives, including case studies on some of the more significant operations in combating identity theft.
4.10-4.35	Coffee Break , network, visit exhibits
4.35-4.50	Ken Belva , Member, Board of Directors, Information Systems Security Association (ISSA), NYC Chapter: Topic – Trusted Computing for Protection and Enablement. Information Protection is the greatest Security concern for public and private sector executives. As data breaches continue, laws and regulations become stricter. Business and government agencies need an effective and efficient governance model to manage information protection. Ken will present a tech-oriented, flexible, governance model for global use on a wide range of regulations.
4.50-5.15	Expert Panel, led by Ed Pospesil , Chairman, The TENG (Technology Executives Working Group): Topic – Are all systems and softwares created equal, can all equally resist intrusion and hacking attempts? Panel members from business and government will discuss the latest advice on securing your financial security and protecting your personal identity. Panel Members: Norm Barber , Strategic Security Advisor, Microsoft Corporation Tom Brennan , President, NY/NJ OWASP Chapter Felix Ramirez , Member, Board of Director, ISACA NY Metro Chapter Ken Belva , Member, Board of Directors, Information Systems Security Association (ISSA), NYC Chapter Patty Yaghmaei , Member, NYC Leadership Council, Co-Chair Membership Drive, Women In Technology International – WITI, New York Network
5.15-5.25	Ernest Schirmer , VP, AIT Global; & Dir, Technology Consulting, Acentech, Inc. Endnotes -- Executive Overview of the Day's Proceedings, in an Executive Level Format.
5.25–5.30	Closing Comments: Sarbuland Khan , Executive Coordinator, UN-GAID Mike Lackey , President, AIT Global